

Companion Observation Summary

Lawrence Senior Support · lawrenceseniorsupport.com · (785) 592-3696

Client	Visit	Companion	Visit no.
Dorothy M.	Tuesday, 2:00–3:00 pm	Anna	6 of 8 this month

HOW DOROTHY SEEMED

Cheerful and chatty today. She was dressed and had the radio on when I arrived, and she mentioned she slept well. She was steady moving around the kitchen and living room.

WHAT WE DID TOGETHER

Worked on the crossword for about twenty minutes, then walked to the mailbox and back. We sorted a week of mail into her basket and she read me a postcard from her grandson.

AROUND THE HOME

The kitchen was tidy and there were fresh groceries in the refrigerator from her daughter's Sunday visit. Water glass was on the counter and she drank while we talked. I noticed the porch light bulb is out and left a note on the fridge for the family.

FOOD AVAILABLE

Yes. Fresh groceries, bread, fruit, and leftovers in the refrigerator.

ANYTHING TO FLAG

Nothing urgent. Dorothy said her neighbor has been out of town, so she has had fewer visitors this week. She asked whether we could try the library trip idea next time; I told her the family would need to arrange the ride.

NEXT VISIT

Thursday, 2:00 pm. Anna.

Sent to: Susan M. (daughter, responsible party) · Michael M. (son) · J. Rivera, Case Manager, Jayhawk Area Agency on Aging (authorized by signed Release Authorization on file, dated 08/01/2026)

This summary is a non-clinical companion record written by a Lawrence Senior Support companion after a 60-minute visit. It is not a health assessment, medical record, or clinical documentation, and it should not be relied on as one. Lawrence Senior Support LLC is not a home health agency or medical provider. Summaries are shared only with the client, the responsible party, and any recipient the client has named in a signed written authorization, which may be revoked at any time.

All names and details on this page are fictional and for illustration only.